Dear Professor/ Colleague /Student,

It is our pleasure to contact you again in order to bring news on the XV International Conference on Building Pathology and Construction Repairs and I International Student Researchers' Conference (CINPAR), which will be held in the city of Salta, Argentina. We would like to inform you that due to the presidential elections in our country—which will take place in 2019—it has been decided to change CINPAR dates to October 30th, 31st, and November 1st 2019.

On another note, given the multiple requests to change the abstract submission deadline, we have decided to reschedule it so as to give authors the necessary time to send their abstracts.

New deadlines:

Abstract submission deadline: December 15th 2018.

Abstract acceptance deadline: December 30th 2018.

Paper submission deadline: July 30th 2019.

Paper acceptance deadline: September 15th 2019.

If you had any doubts, please visit the conference website:
